Player Evaluations

Player evaluations are necessary to balance out the teams. This will ensure that each player is in a position to maximize their hockey development.

For this reason, all players will be required to participate in a Pre-Season Player Evaluation held prior to the start of each season. There is no tryout fee.

League Format

While most programs focus either exclusively on game play or skill sessions, the Coaches League combines both into one comprehensive program.

By doing so, each participant will learn new skills and be able to put them into practical use immediately. This reinforces the learning process so players will maintain the skills they are taught and begin to develop positive "habits".
